

2014 Carrot Research Priorities

High Priority

Weed Control. Broadleaves, especially ragweed and pigweed. Alternatives to Lorox.

Nematode Management. Evaluate seed treatments and Vydate alternatives.

Disease Management. Evaluate new products and application methods to maintain healthy tops & roots.

Variety Evaluations. Evaluate varieties from non-traditional sources and compare to current standards. Longer root length needed—variety evaluation and production techniques.